

Codex Framework — Investment & Licensing Terms

Author: Philip Chacko Varughese · ORCID: 0009-0006-5973-3825

Date: 2025

Scope

- Investments and licensing are offered for specific applications in AI safety, quantum cryptography, systemic risk management, and advanced computation.

Structure

- All intellectual property (IP) remains with the author.
- Investors and partners may receive rights of use and revenue-share arrangements.

Returns

- Returns are tied to licensing revenues, pilot deployments, and enterprise agreements.
- This is not equity or stock issuance; no dilution of IP ownership.

Limitations

- No resale, sublicensing, or transfer of Codex IP.
- No unauthorized derivative works.

Disclaimer

- This is not a public securities offering.
- All negotiations must comply with applicable laws and regulations (e.g., SEC in the US, ESMA in EU).
- Final terms subject to signed agreements.
